Macquarie University Students borrowing from us

NSI libraries and Macquarie University Library have signed an agreement so that our students can borrow from each other’s libraries.

As a Macquarie University student, you may borrow from all campus libraries in TAFE NSW, Northern Sydney RTO.

- Hornsby Campus
- Meadowbank Campus
- Northern Beaches Campus
- Ryde Campus
- ST Leonards Campus

You will need to

- Pay $55. See Library staff for details.
- Give us a printout of your library record from Macquarie University showing you have no fines or blocks, signed and stamped by Macquarie University Library staff
- Show us ID with your name and address

This entitles you to borrow:

- Up to 15 hard copy items* for 2 weeks with up to 2 renewals (these items may be recalled by the library earlier if required urgently by local users)
- From any NSI Campus Library as listed above
- For the current year to December

* some items are heavily restricted, it could be that they are in high demand locally. You may not be able to borrow these.

You may also:

- Obtain professional help to search for resources and to use our catalogue
- Use photocopy facilities. Bring change as unused credit can’t be refunded
- Use our individual study spaces and lounge areas

You are not able to use:

- Our wi-fi network
- Our computers other than to use the library catalogue
- Our printers
- Our online resources due to licencing restrictions
- Our interlibrary loans service
- Our group study rooms or seminar rooms

Note: there are financial penalties for overdue, lost or damaged materials. You may also be further penalised by Macquarie University Library if you fail to pay fines owed to NS Libraries
